21st All India Agricultural Universities Youth Festival (13-17 March, 2023)

Day Four (16th March, 2023) Events

University of Agricultural Sciences, GKVK, Bengaluru

Floating fourth day

The fourth day of the ongoing 21st Agri Unifest at UAS, Bangalore witnessed Group Dance (Folk), one Act Play, Skit, Debate, Clay Modelling and Rangoli competitions.

Events

Group Dance (Folk)

Folk dance is the form of expression which has evolved over the years, bringing uniqueness and novelty to the Indian culture. The powerful performances by the participating students in folk dance at Dr. Babu Rajendra Prasad convention centre left the audience spell bound. Most of the Universities took part in the event and the power packed performances enthralled the crowd.

Rangoli

Rangoli has originated in the Indian subcontinent as an imaginative expression of designs on flat surfaces with the purpose to represent happiness, positivity, liveliness, wealth and good luck of the household. The students from different Universities participated with zeal and enthusiasm to bring out this art form to the best of their abilities through bright and vibrant colours.

Patriotic Song (Indian)

The participants sang with passion, confidence and patriotism. It was held at Dr. Rajendra Prasad Convention Hall of GKVK Campus.

Dancing to the beat of heritage

Clay Modelling : Creativity in its three-dimensional form was brought out in the form of clay modelling with 'Integrated farming systems' as the theme. Forty-six teams participated from different Universities in this event.

Clay Modelling : Shapeless to stunning

Skit : A theatrical form of act performed by a group of artists on a wide range of themes and topics from current events to historical events and fictional stories. The competition was held at Kuvempu Auditorium of GKVK Campus.

Debate

Debate is an art of persuasive argumentation that has been a significant part of human culture since ancient times. It involves two opposing sides presenting their arguments on a specific topic, with the aim of convincing the audience on their position. A total of 53 Universities participated.
