21st All India Agricultural Universities Youth Festival (13-17 March, 2023)

University of Agricultural Sciences, GKVK, Bengaluru

Taking off

Everyone has a talent and every talent needs a stage. The University of Agricultural Sciences, Bangalore provides the stage to budding artists by hosting the 21st All India Agricultural Universities Youth Festival from 13- 17 March 2023 in its beautiful green campus.

It all started from here...

All India Inter-Agricultural Universities Festival was conceptualized and introduced by the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR), New Delhi during 1999-2000, with a vision of integrating Indian agriculture to connect different cultures of India and harness talents among the youth of Farm Universities and to depict the beauty of Indian cultural diversity. This festival is annually celebrated jointly by the State as well as Central Agricultural Universities. The prestigious Agri Unifest, a five-day cultural extravaganza, would bring together over 1500 talented youth from different parts of the country. Students from 57 State Agricultural Universities/ Deemed Universities/ Central Universities showcase their skills in music, dance, literary, theatre and fine arts events. The hallmark of the Agri Unifest is a unique blend of many cultures. University of Agricultural Sciences, Bangalore, the first Agricultural University of Karnataka, is hosting the 21st Agri Unifest for the third time in 24 years.

Soaring High - 21st Agri Unifest

Welcome to Festivities of 21st Agri Unifest

The GKVK campus is embellished with posters featuring events and directions. The detailed schedule, rules and regulations concerning the five-day youth festival has been made available in the University website (www.uasbangalore.edu.in).

Allegory of logo

The logo, a detailed simple one, symbolises the 21st Agri Unifest. It is an artwork of perfection as it picturises all the different events in the fest. At the core of the logo we can see a Yakshagana artist, Yakshagana being a traditional folk/ semi classical dance of coastal Karnataka represents the dance competitions which are to be held. The hands pointing up is asking the contestants to aim for the sky. The rangoli on which he stands the musical note, the drama masks, comedy and tragedy, the quill pen in the background represents all other fine arts, music, theatre and literary events.

Registration

The prestigious Agri Unifest, a five-day cultural extravaganza, has brought together over 1516 members from different parts of the country. The registration counter is established at the Dr. Babu Rajendra Prasad Convention Centre, GKVK campus.
